

International Training course about gender equality and stereotypes

“Gender trouble?! How to overcome gender stereotypes “

Youth in Action Program - Action 3.1

Georgia, Bakuriani.

8-16 October 2009

The purpose of the training is:

- To clarify gender problems and gender discrimination
- To overcome gender discrimination
- To promote human rights and equality among youth
- To develop and share new project ideas for future cooperation
- To promote intercultural dialog against stereotypes
- Raise awareness of participants about stereotypes and discrimination

The objectives of Training:

- To develop skills and knowledge in the context of the human rights
- To discuss and define the problems of gender discrimination
- To have opportunity to exchange information and experience
- To share ways of working and develop new techniques
- To learn about stereotypes
- To set up future projects together

Partners profile:

Youth workers, leaders from all youth in action program countries and EECA countries

Participants profile:

Young people from 18-30

Financial conditions:

All costs are fully covered. The 70% of travel expenses will be reimbursed and the participants should pay 30% of travel costs.

Deadline:

All applicants are supposed to send their part III until

May 15th

Scanned version to: info@interlog-ev.net

AND (!!!) by post to:

Interlog e.V.

Grossbeerenstr. 100

14482 Potsdam (Germany)

For additional information contact do not hesitate to contact us:

Georgian project coordinator: Tam Pkhakadzd

Email: pxakadzetamo@yahoo.co.uk

German project coordinator: Thomas Geisler

Email: t.geisler@interlog-ev.net